

Economic measures to benefit Creative Sector

The economic measures which the Prime Minister says will be announced soon shall be targeted the small business community, non-traditional sectors and the marginal households. This means that the Creative Sector, producers and participationers stand to benefit from these economic measures in in tangible form. As some of the persons who are losing their jobs include artists and other cultural related entities, they too stand to benefit directly from these economic/financial measures.

Contact:

Ministry of Sports, Culture and Community Development of Dominica

Mr. Raymond Lawrence, Chief Cultural Officer

culturaldivision@dominica.gov.dm;

psseccommunitydevelopment@dominica.gov.dm;

rolaw14@yahoo.com

Source: UNESCO Office in Kingston