

Social Media mainly used to feed out content as regards culture in creative ways

The Government of the Virgin Islands has imposed a curfew. Employees have been asked to work remotely. The Department of Culture has opted to utilise social media in order to feed out content as regards culture, the arts and heritage in creative ways. For example, the Department of Culture is currently running a daily "lockdown" challenge.

Contact:

Ministry of Education, Culture, Youth Affairs, Fisheries and Agriculture

Source: UNESCO Office in Kingston